Charles R. McCormick, who was here to witness the launching of the S. I. Allard, left Monday afternoon for his home in San Francisco.

The Catholic chapel car St. Peter, after a week's stay in St. Helens, on Monday left for Deer Island. From that place it will go to Rainier.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Blakesley were visitors Saturday and Sunday at the home of Prof. L. L. Baker. Mr. Blakesley teaches school near Rainier.

Bob Heames, who for some time has been employed in the yards of the shipbuilding company, left Monday morning for Vancouver, where he has accepted a position in the yard operated by J. H. Price.

L. D. Weeks, of St. Helens, has sold four lots in North Bend, Oregon, for a consideration of $1000, and has bought a ten-acre tract in the famous White Salmon fruit district.

Mrs. L. R. Rutherford was a visitor to Portland Wednesday.

Mrs. Isabel Windel and Miss Josephine Peas, of Portland, who have been visitors at the home of Mrs. H. J. Southard for several days, returned to the metropolis Wednesday.

F. A. Erickson, of Salem, was a guest of his friend Jacob George Sunday and Monday. Mr. Erickson is a Salem contractor and the man who built the Columbia county courthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Elon Felton motored to their new home at Canby, Oregon, Saturday last. Mr. Felton has secured a position in Canby in connection with the road building work of Clackamas county.

A. (Doc) Rae left Tuesday morning for Flavel, where he embarked on the steamer Northern Pacific. He will visit relatives in San Francisco for several weeks before returning to St. Helens.

A farewell party was given by Mrs. H. J. Anderson Sunday afternoon in honor of Miss Velma Felton, who left Tuesday afternoon for her new home in Canby, Oregon. The afternoon was spent in games, and refreshments were served. Mrs. Anderson accompanied Miss Velma to Canby on Tuesday.

Hallie C. Hancock, a cousin of L. R. Rutherford, recently arrived from Treadwell, Alaska, and has accepted a position at the St. Helens Shipbuilding Company yards. Mrs. Hancock is now visiting her parents in St. Maries, Idaho, but plans to join her husband here in a short time.

Deputy Game Warden Brown left Tuesday afternoon for the Nehalem country, going via Pittsburg. Last week Mr. Brown arrested Herman Lockman, of Ingals, on a charge of fishing without a license. Before a Clatskanie justice of the peace, he was tried and found guilty. Daniel Killic was also arrested for fishing without a license and brought to St. Helens for trial. He was released upon his promise to secure a license before he again operated his set net.

After the regular session of the Eastern Star lodge Saturday night, January 27, the members of the lodge were pleasantly surprised when told to remain in the lodge room for a few minutes and they would receive refreshments. "Dr. Ira H. Black, chiropractor with offices in the O'Kane building, has sold his business and returned to Portland. While in Bend only a short time, Dr. Black made many friends who do not like to see him go away. Dr. Black said, when leaving: 'I like Bend very much. My personal and business relations were very pleasant, but Mrs. Black could not stand the altitude, and so, reluctantly, we are forced to move elsewhere.'—Bend Daily Press. Dr. Black, accompanied by his wife, was in St. Helens Saturday renewing old acquaintances.

CITATION TO HEIRS

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, FOR COLUMBIA COUNTY.

In the Matter of the Estate of Peter Horgren, Deceased.

To John Horgren, Christena Kellason, Eva Akesson, Anna Horgren, Alma Horgren—daughter of Cecilia Horgren—, Peter Horgren, and to all others unknown, if any such there be, heirs at law of the estate of Peter Horgren, deceased:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable County Court of the State of Oregon for Columbia County, at the Court house in the City of St. Helens on the 14th day of March, 1917, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. of said day to show cause, if any exist, why an order of sale should not be made according to the prayer and petition of the administrator of the above entitled estate, for the sale of the personal property and all of the real property belonging to said estate in Columbia County, Oregon, which property is described as follows: The S. E. 1/4 of the S. Witness, the Hon. R. S. Hattan, Judge of the County Court of the State of Oregon for Columbia County, this 31st day of January, A. D. 1917.

Attest:
(Seal) A. P. BARNETT,
7-5 Clerk.

MORE MILK WILL CUT COST OF LIVING

More milk in the diet of the average American family would help cut down the high cost of living, in the city as well as in the country. Although milk is one of the cheapest animal foods the average per capita daily consumption is much too small.
